Brad Timms' practice focuses on a broad range of litigation matters. Brad regularly litigates complex commercial, insurance, employment, and construction disputes in state and federal district and appellate courts. While he specializes in litigation, Brad is recognized by clients and colleagues as a general problem solver, creating value by identifying ways to avoid unnecessary legal costs and manage litigation risks. Because of this, he also serves as general counsel to businesses and individuals, making him comfortable in the courtroom and boardroom.
